Executive Summary

This visitor study profiles a systematic random sample of Eisenhower National Historic Site visitors during June 15 - July 2, 2017. A total of 455 questionnaires were distributed to visitor groups. Of those, 304 questionnaires were returned, resulting in a 66.8% completion rate.

Group size and type
Fifty-nine percent of visitor groups consisted of one to two people, 28% were visiting in groups of three to four and 13% were visiting in groups of five or more. Eighty-one percent of visitor groups consisted of family groups.

State or country of residence
United States visitors were from 44 states and comprised 98.9% of total visitation during the survey period, with 29% from Pennsylvania. International visitors came from three different countries and comprised 1.1% of total visitation during the survey period.

Frequency of visits
For 98% of visitors, this was their first visit to the park in the past 12 months. Two percent of visitors have now visited twice in the past 12 months.

Age and gender
Fifty-nine percent of visitors were 50 years old or older, 19% were between 31 and 50 years old, and 16% were 17 years old or younger. Forty-nine percent of visitors were male, 50% were female, and 1% selected the “no answer” option.

Sources of information
Eighty-three percent of visitor groups obtained information about the park prior to their visit. Some of the most common sources of information obtained prior to the visit were the Gettysburg National Military Park website (47%), the Eisenhower National Historic Site website (39%), maps/brochures (20%), friends/relatives/word of mouth (20%), and previous visits (17%). Ninety-five percent of visitors said they received the type of information about the park they needed.

Travel plans and reasons for visiting the park
Sixty-two percent of visitor groups indicated that visiting Eisenhower National Historic Site was one of several destinations during travel. Nine percent of visitor groups indicated the park was their primary destination.

Transportation to the park
Ninety-three percent of visitor groups traveled to the park in one vehicle. Seven percent of visitor groups traveled to the park in two or more vehicles.

Awareness of tour reservation system
Forty-one percent of visitor groups were aware of the tour reservation system at the site. Among those that were aware of the reservation system, 44% scheduled their tour prior to their visit. Of those visitors that scheduled a tour reservation, 47% used the Gettysburg Foundation website, 37% used the National Park Service website, and 16% called the phone number.

Length of time in local community and overnight accommodations
Seventy-eight percent of visitor groups spent more than one day in the local communities on this trip. Of those who spent more than one day, the average stay was four days, with a minimum of one and a maximum of 100 days. Of those who only visited on one day, the average length of stay was six hours. For those visitor groups that stayed overnight in the area, the most common accommodations used included hotel, motel, B&B, etc. (80%), camping (16%), and residence of friends or relatives (4%).

Shuttle bus
Ninety-six percent of visitor groups used the Eisenhower Shuttle. Eighty-four percent would “definitely” use the shuttle again and 13% would “probably” use it again. The most important proposed items for improvement include more frequent shuttle bus service (18%), more parking (13%), better defined parking areas (10%), and “other” items included on site parking, reduce cost/senior discounts, better explanation of bus route, and signage.

Services
Services that visitor groups indicated were important to them include indoor exhibits (89%), outdoor exhibits (81%), park brochure/map (79%), assistance from park rangers (75%), ranger-led programs (74%), park website used before or during the visit (62%), and visitor center movies/videos (58%). The services that visitor groups rated highest in quality included indoor exhibits (96%), assistance from park rangers (94%), ranger-led programs (94%), park newspaper (93%), and park brochure/map (92%).

Importance and effects of factors on visit
The factor that would impact visitor groups’ visit the most are shuttle wait time (12%), parking shortages (12%), parking congestion (11%) and six visitor groups indicated an “other” reason not listed, which included cost for visiting a National Park, unable to transport stroller, and listening to the ranger talk in the hot sun.

Overall quality
Ninety-six percent of visitor groups rated the overall quality of the facilities, services, and recreational opportunities provided as “Good” or “Very good.”

Introduction

This report describes the results of a visitor study at Eisenhower National Historic Site (NHS) located in Southern Pennsylvania, conducted between June 15 and July 2, 2017 by the National Park Service (NPS) and the Social and Economic Sciences Research Center (SESRC) at Washington State University.

According to Ed Clark, Superintendent, Eisenhower NHS and Michael Caldwell, Regional Director, Northeast Region (2016), Eisenhower NHS consists of “690 acres” and “the purpose of Eisenhower National Historic Site is to preserve and interpret the home and farms of the Eisenhower family as a fitting and enduring memorial to the life, work, and times of General Dwight David Eisenhower, 34th president of the United States, and to the events of far-reaching importance that occurred on the property” (p.3 and 5).
Presentation of the Results

Results are represented in the form of graphs (see Example 1), scatter plots, pie charts, tables, and text.

Key

1. The figure title describes the graph’s information.

2. Listed above the graph, the “N” shows the number of individuals or visitor groups responding to the question. If “N” is less than 30, “CAUTION!” is shown on the graph to indicate the Results may be unreliable.

* appears when the total percentages do not equal 100 due to rounding.

 appears when total percentages do not equal 100 because visitors could select more than one answer choice.

3. Vertical information describes the response categories.

4. Horizontal information shows the number or proportion of responses in each category.

5. In most graphs, percentages provide additional information.

Methods

Survey Design and Procedures

Sample size and sampling plan

All SESRC questionnaires follow design principles outlined in Don A. Dillman’s book Mail and Internet Surveys: The Tailored Design Method (2007). Using this method, the sample size was calculated based on the park visitation statistics of previous years.

Brief interviews were conducted with a systematic, random sample of visitor groups that arrived at two sites between June 15 and July 2, 2017. Visitors were surveyed between the hours of 8:00am and 5:00pm. Table 1 shows the participation break down for the two sampling locations and Table 2 shows number of questionnaires distributed and returned, and the completion rate for each location. During the survey period, 1,389 visitor groups were contacted and 455 of these groups (32.8%) accepted questionnaires. Questionnaires were completed and returned by 304 respondents, resulting in a completion rate of 66.8% and an overall response rate of 50.8% for this study.

Questionnaire design

The Eisenhower National Historic Site questionnaire was developed through collaborative communication between park management and SESRC staff to prioritize questions and design the instrument. Some of the questions used are similar to questions used in other SESRC studies conducted at other NPS locations. Other questions were designed for Eisenhower National Historic Site to shed light on issues specific to Eisenhower. Most questions ask respondents to select answers from a list of responses, often with an open-ended option, while others are completely open-ended.

No pilot study was conducted to test the Eisenhower National Historic Site questionnaire. However, all questions followed Office Management and Budget (OMB) guidelines and/or were used in previous surveys; thus, the clarity and consistency of the survey instrument have been tested and supported.

Survey procedure

Visitor groups were greeted, briefly introduced to the purpose of the study, and asked to participate. If visitors agreed, they were asked which member (at least 18 years old) had the next birthday. The individual with the next birthday was selected to complete an online questionnaire for the group. An interview, lasting approximately two minutes, was conducted with that person to determine group size, group type, and the age and sex of the member completing the questionnaire. These individuals were asked their names, addresses, and telephone numbers or email addresses in order to mail them a reminder/thank-you postcard and follow-up contacts. Participants were asked to complete the survey online after their visit.

*total percentages do not equal 100 due to rounding
total percentages do not equal 100 because visitors could select more than one answer
Survey invitations were handed out in one, three-week block. Two weeks after survey distribution was completed, a reminder/thank-you postcard was mailed to all participants who provided a valid mailing address (see Table 4). A total of 451 postcards were mailed out. Paper questionnaires were mailed to all participants, including those who had specifically requested a paper copy. Within a month after mailing the first questionnaire, a replacement questionnaire was mailed out. Approximately two weeks after the replacement mailing, a final reminder letter was mailed to participants who still had not returned their questionnaire.

Data analysis
All visitor responses were entered twice and double-key validation was performed on numeric and short text responses. Responses to open-ended questions were categorized and summarized prior to data analysis.

Numeric data were processed and statistics and graphics were generated using Statistical Analysis Software® (SAS), IBM SPSS Statistics, and R.

Limitations
As with all surveys, this study has limitations that should be considered when interpreting the Results.

- This was a self-administered survey. Respondents completed the questionnaire after their visit, which may have resulted in poor recall. Thus, it is not possible to know whether visitor responses reflected actual behavior.

- The data reflect visitor use patterns at the selected sites during the study period of June 15 - July 2, 2017. The Results present a ‘snapshot in time’ and do not necessarily apply to visitors during other times of the year.

- Caution is advised when interpreting any data with a sample size of less than 30, as the Results may be unreliable. When the sample size is less than 30, the word ‘CAUTION!’ is included in the graph, figure, table, or text.

- Occasionally, there may be inconsistencies in the Results. Inconsistencies arise from missing data or incorrect answers (due to misunderstood directions, carelessness, or

*total percentages do not equal 100 due to rounding
total percentages do not equal 100 because visitors could select more than one answer poor recall of information). Therefore, refer to both the percentage and N (number of individuals or visitor groups) when interpreting the Results.

Special conditions
The weather during the survey period varied from sunny and warm, to overcast, windy, rainy, and cool.

No special events occurred in the area that would have affected the type and amount of visitation to the park.
Checking non-response bias

Five variables were used to check non-response bias: group size, length of stay in hours, reported parking problems, participant’s observed gender, and the proximity of the participant’s home to the park. Respondents and non-respondents were found to be significantly different in personal group size (see Table 5 - Table 8). No significant differences were found between respondents and non-respondents in terms of length of stay in hours, encountering parking problems, participant’s observed gender, and the proximity of participant’s home to the park. See Appendix D for more details of the non-response bias checking procedures.

Planning your Visit

Preparation prior to trip

Question 1

How would you describe your planning for this trip?

Results:

- As shown in Figure 1, 89% of the visitor group performed some type of pre-planning to visit Eisenhower National Historic Site, while 11% did no planning for the trip.
- 20% of visitor groups carefully planned out their trip.
- 44% did some pre-planning.
- 25% did very little pre-planning.

Travel plans

Question 2

How did your visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site fit into your travel plans?

Results:

- As shown in Figure 2, only 9% of visitor groups indicated Eisenhower National Historic Site as their primary destination.
- 62% indicated Eisenhower NHS was one of several destinations.
- 9% were just passing through to their primary destination.
- 20% did not plan on visiting.

Information sources prior to visit

Question 3a

Prior to this visit, how did you and your personal group obtain information about Eisenhower National Historic Site?

Results:

- 83% of visitor groups obtained information about Eisenhower National Historic Site prior to their visit (see Figure 3).

- As shown in Figure 4, among those visitor groups that obtained information about Eisenhower NHS prior to their visit, the most used sources were:
  - 47% Gettysburg National Military Park (NMP) website
  - 39% Eisenhower National Historic Site (NHS) website
  - 20% Maps/brochures
  - 20% Friends/relatives/word of mouth
  - 17% Previous visits
  - 13% Travel guides/tour books

“Other” sources of information (6%) were:

- Interested in/read about President Eisenhower
- NPS passport book
- Tours (bus/battlefield/etc.)
- Battlefield Museum
- Farm reenactment
- General knowledge

Other websites (4%) used to obtain information prior to visit were:

- roadsideamerica.com
- nps.gov
- tripadvisor.com

Question 3b
From the sources marked above, did you and your personal group receive the type of information about the park that you needed?

Results:
- 95% of visitor groups received the information they needed (see Figure 5).

Question 3b
If NO, what type of park information did your group need that was not available?

Results:
- Among those visitor groups that needed unavailable park information, 12 visitor groups (100%) provided one or more comments regarding the type information they needed (see Table 9).

Awareness of potential parking issues

Question 4
When you planned this trip to Eisenhower National Historic Site, did you think about the possibility that it might be difficult to find on site parking?

Results:
- 84% of visitor groups did not think about the possibility of potential difficulties to find parking on site (see Figure 6).

Current Visit

Mode of transportation

Question 5a
What forms of transportation did you and your group use to arrive at the Gettysburg National Military Park Museum and Visitor Center?

Results:
- 88% of visitor groups used a private or rental vehicle to arrive at Gettysburg National Military Park Museum and Visitor Center (see Figure 7).
- 13% arrived by tour motorcoach/bus.
- About 4% indicated their arrival was by hotel shuttle van/courtesy bus, on foot, or by bicycle.
- No visitor groups listed an “other” form of transportation or that a taxi/limousine/Uber was used.

Results:
- Among the visitor groups who indicated they arrived in a private or rental vehicle (see Figure 8).
  - 93% arrived in one car.
  - 5% arrived in two cars.
  - 2% arrived in three or more cars.

Figure 8. Number of private or rental vehicles visitor groups used to arrive at site

Tour reservation system
Question 6a
Were you aware of the tour reservation system at Eisenhower National Historic Site?

Results:
- 41% of visitor groups indicated that they were aware of the tour reservation system (see Figure 9).

Question 6b
If YES, did you use it to make reservations prior to your visit?

Results:
- Among those aware of the reservation system, 44% used the system to schedule their tour prior to the visit (see Figure 10).

Question 6c
If NO, how did you learn about the tours?

Results:

- Among those unaware of the reservation system, 167 visitor groups (93%) provided one or more comments regarding how they came to learn about the tours. Table 10 summarizes the most common comments about how visitors learned about the tours.

Question 7
If you responded YES to Question 6b, did you get the tour reservation by calling the toll-free telephone number, by going online to the National Park Service website, or Gettysburg Foundation website?

Results:
- Figure 11 shows 84% of those visitor groups who used the tour reservation system went online. 47% used the Gettysburg Foundation website, and 37% used the National Park Service website.
- 16% called the phone number.

Adequacy of locating the site through technology

Question 8a
Please mark all mapping devices that you and your personal group used to arrive at Eisenhower National Historic Site on this visit.

Results:
- 66% of visitor groups used a mapping device to arrive at Eisenhower National Historic Site (see Figure 12).
- As shown in Figure 13, among those who used a mapping device:
  - 54% used GPS devices.
  - 41% used printed maps/brochures.
  - 40% used smartphone/tablet mapping apps.
  - 15% used online mapping tools.
  - 1 visitor group indicated “other”, but no device was listed.
Question 8b
Did you and your personal group have any difficulty locating Eisenhower National Historic Site using the above devices?

Results:
- 96% of visitor groups had no problems locating Eisenhower National Historic Site using the mapping devices listed in Question 8a (see Figure 14).

Question 8c
If YES, what was the problem?

Results:
- Among those that indicated there was a problem locating Eisenhower National Historic Site, 7 visitor groups (88%) further indicated the problems encountered (see Table 11).

Impact of factors on visit

Question 9
To what extent did the following factors impact your visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site?

1 = Not at all
2 = Very little
3 = Somewhat
4 = To a great extent
5 = Not applicable

Results:

- Table 12 shows the impact ratings for each factor.
- As shown in Figure 15, visitor groups rated the following factors impacting their visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site as “Somewhat” or “To a great extent”:
  - 12% Shuttle wait time
  - 12% Parking shortages
  - 11% Parking congestion

“Other” factors suggested as having an impact on the visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site (6 visitor groups) were:

- Confusion about shuttle destination
- Cost for a National Park
- Listening to ranger talk in hot sun
- Time constraints
- Unable to transport stroller
- Bus pick up site poorly signed
- Poor signage to alternate parking lots

On this visit, did you and your personal group use the Eisenhower Shuttle?

Results:
- 96% of visitor groups used the Eisenhower Shuttle (see Figure 16).

Question 10b
If Yes, Would you use the Eisenhower Shuttle again?

Results:
- Among visitor groups that used the Eisenhower Shuttle:
  - 84% would definitely use it again (see Figure 17).
  - 13% would probably use it again.
  - 3% did not know, or probably would not use it again.
  - 1% will not be back to the park.

Importance of improvements to shuttle bus

Question 11

If you were to visit Eisenhower National Historic Site again in the future, how important would the following proposed improvements be in your decision to use the shuttle bus?

1 = Not important
2 = Somewhat important
3 = Moderately important
4 = Very important
5 = Extremely important

Results:

- The importance ratings for each proposed item for improvement are shown in Table 13.
- As shown in Figure 18, visitor groups rated the following proposed items for improvement as “Very important” or “Extremely important”:
  - 18% More frequent shuttle bus service
  - 13% More parking
  - 10% Better defined parking areas
  - “Other” suggested items for improvement (7 visitor groups) were:
    - On site parking
    - Reduce cost/senior discounts
    - Better explanation of the bus routes
    - Signage

What would you do?

Results:

- As shown in Figure 20, a majority (66%) of visitor groups would park in a different lot and ride the shuttle bus.
- 22% would look for parking anyway.
- 9% would leave and come back later.
- 1% would go to a different recreation area instead.
- “Other” comments (2%) provided included:
  - Not visit/do something else
  - Go to downtown Gettysburg
  - Park in bus depot lot
  - Park in town, shuttle/taxi to visitor center
  - Skip Eisenhower; go to the visitor center

Question 17b
How far is this alternative site from your home?

Results:
- 43% of visitor groups reported alternative destination as less than 250 miles from home (see Figure 30).
- The average distance was 542 miles from visitors homes, with a minimum of zero miles and a maximum of 4,500 miles.

Local visitor

Question 18a
Do you live in the local area within 50 miles of Eisenhower National Historic Site?

Results:
- 95% of visitor groups did not live in the local area (see Figure 31).

Question 18b
If NO, how much time in total did you spend in the local communities?

Results:
- Among those visitor groups who reported to not live in the local area, 78% spent longer than one day in the local communities (see Figure 32).
- On average, visitor groups spending more than one day in the local communities spent four days, with a minimum of one day and a maximum of 100 days.
- Visitor groups spending less than one day, on average stayed for six hours, with a minimum of one hour and a maximum of 16 hours.

total percentages do not equal 100 because visitors could select more than one answer
Question 19b
If NO, what reasons prevented you from visiting these locations?

Results:

- Among the 52 visitor groups (18%) not able to visit all the sites they planned:
  - 73% did not have enough time (see Figure 35).
  - 8% encountered bad weather.
  - “Other” reasons (31%) reported were:
    - Shuttle schedule
    - Unable to walk to barns (physical constraints)
    - Areas not open
    - Too hot to hike to barns
    - Cost
    - Tired children
    - Would have liked to see their cars

No visitor groups were prevented from visiting locations due to trail closures, road closure, inadequate display of road signs/maps, or unsafe road.

Altered length of stay

Question 20

If you and your personal group stayed for a shorter or longer time than planned, what were your reasons for changing your plans?

Results:

- 80% of visitor groups stayed for the planned amount of time (see Figure 36).
- As shown in Figure 37, 49% of visitor groups indicated there were more things to do/see than expected.
- 15% Longer wait at Eisenhower National Historic Site (NHS) than expected.
- 4% Fewer things to do/see than expected.
- 2% Unable to obtain a ticket for the shuttle bus.
- 2% Shorter wait at Eisenhower NHS than expected.
- “Other” commented reasons (35%) included:
  - Shuttle schedule (wait too long for next shuttle)
  - Needed to return home
  - Schedule conflicts/time constraints
  - Arrival too close to closing
  - Disappointed in tour
  - Personal
  - Tired children

Appendix C: Visitor comments

Transportation issues during visit

Question 12

What transportation related issues, if any, did you face during your visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site?

- Although preserving the integrity of the farm is important, parking lots on site would be very helpful.
- Crowded parking for our rental car in the Gettysburg Nat. Park parking lots; we had to walk quite a distance to catch the shuttle bus
- Disappointed private cars were not allowed.
- Everything flowed. No problem. Maybe more frequent departures from the Center. Perhaps every half hour.
- Finding a parking space was a challenge
- Great service, guides, bus drivers. Excellant service.
- Had no issues.
- I didn't think we could park at the site so we parked at the Military Park and got a great spot. We got our tickets waited on a short while for a shuttle bus and it was fine.
- I had a scheduled tour of the battleground at 11:00. I had made it before arriving at the Eisenhower. When I got on the shuttle bus, I was told the next bus leaving the Eisenhower home would be 10:30. This made my schedule extremely tight and I feared I would miss my scheduled tour. I should have been made aware of this situation when I purchased my ticket, not after I was on the bus headed to the Eisenhower home.
- I visited Eisenhower's farm as a child, so my memory is vague and slightly inaccurate. I made all reservations online, but didn't realize when I did so that the farm is inaccessible to cars, and the shuttle is basically required. This wasn't an issue for me, and I find it quite nice, but I wasn't informed of this when I picked up my tickets at will call before our cyclorama ticket time. I was wondering around the Gettysburg visitor center trying to find the direction of the farm, before I was able to find someone to tell me it was a bus ticket that I had in my hand. Just slight confusion, nothing too bad.
- I wanted to run back to buy an item but the bus was leaving in 2 minutes so I didn't have time.
- I was not aware that the shuttle was the only way to experience Eisenhower and it negatively affected our day.
- I would like to park onsite. GPS was confusing.
- Just had to wait a few minutes for shuttle to arrive. This gave us time in bookstore.
- Just parking at visitor center took a while to find a spot.
- Lack of information about parking, and parking lot was a long walk from museum.
• Main bldg not visible first time there, had to ask which way to go when parked!
• Mainly that we couldn't drive our car there & park onsite. Thus we had to buy shuttle tickets, wait for our assigned shuttle window. Open shuttles, rather than a specific one at a specific time would be helpful
• Most of the parking spots were taken at the visitor center so we had to spend some time looking for a spot.
• My family would have preferred more frequent shuttle service.
• My sons would not sit with anyone else, and we were told we could not sit three across. I fixed this on the way back, and they sat together and I sat by myself. One of my sons is Autistic and has to stay close to my side usually.
• N.A.
• n/a
• No
• No issues
• No issues
• No issues used the tour bus
• no problems, worked very well, enjoyed time at home
• No Transportation issues occurred on our visit. We arrived in the AM at the visitors center, purchased our tickets and walked to the shuttle bus. The next shuttle bus was the next bus waiting behind another tour bus. That was it, no issues.
• "No transportation issues.
• It was easy to get around.
• The bus drivers were very friendly!!!!!!!"

- None. I took the shuttle bus.
- None. The tour bus delivered us to the site.
- None. Would like to have been able to drive ourselves there at our convenience.
- None. it was very easy.
- None.e
- None-used bus.
• Nothing other than the aforementioned issues with not knowing that we had to park at the visitors center. The bus service, and drivers, were wonderful.
• Nothing prepared us, in writing, the fact we would have to park, buy tickets, and shuttle in to the house.
• On my first visit to Gettysburg I didn't plan enough time to take in the Eisenhower house. My second trip to Gettysburg was to specifically see the Eisenhower house. At that time I thought the tour was inconvenient. Having to go buy a tour ticket and waiting for the bus to take me to and from the Gettysburg Visitor Center. Going back and forth probably doubled my time at Gettysburg that day.
• only that you have to take shuttle
• Operator waited for a scheduled tour that didn't show, and out time passed before we departed
• Our schedule/timetable was somewhat limited, and due to less-frequent shuttle bus service, we had to cut our visit to the the Eisenhower National Historic Site shorter than we would have liked.
• Parking
• parking
• parking at Visitor Center very crowded
• Parking congestion at the visitor center.
• really didn't have any issues. I thought only way to the site was via the Eisenhower shuttle from the visitor center which worked very well.
• Return shuttle to Visitor's Center did not have sufficient capacity for the number of passengers waiting. Driver had to request a second shuttle which arrived fairly quickly but resulted in additional waiting time of about 15 minutes.
• Shuttle frequency and future day plans forced me to cut short my visit by ~30min
• Shuttle schedule did not match up well with the program talk schedule at the Eisenhower site. We were on the first shuttle to the sight in the morning. The first program talk was not until after the arrival of the second shuttle. To stay for the talk would have required us to spend an additional hour at the site before another shuttle would be returning to the Visitor's Center.
• Shuttle too crowded. People had to wait for another shuttle (leaving Eisenhower).
• Shuttle worked perfect for us. Very easy leaving car at Gettysburg Visitor Center.
• Shuttles can fill up quickly, near the end of the day.
• Shuttles were on time, not crowded and the driver was very informative. Enjoyed the trip to and back
• Spent a long time trying to find a parking space at the Visitors Center. Very frustrating.
• The biggest such problem was their signage directing traffic between the different parking lots.
• The gift shop said that it was no need to hurry to the bus and when we tried to get on at the time it was full. Another bus should have been sent we had to wait for the next one. this should have been better communicated. Not blaming the gift shop blaming the visitor center they should have said get on the bus since once it is full there would not be other bus till the schedule time. Over all it was enjoyable visit,

- The only way in was by shuttle.
- The shuttle times were very strict. It was difficult to get back to the Gettysburg Visitor Center for other scheduled tours. My son and I made two trips to the Eisenhower site in order to experience it thoroughly. Our first visit with my son's boy scout troop was very rushed due to upcoming tours.
- The visitor center where you parked was awful full and the parking spots were to small. Also, I would include more outdoor eating places and covered eating area's. A lot of families were eating out by their cars. The picnic tables were nice, but to hot to sit in the open sun.
- there were no issues at all - we were the last tour for the day
- Trying to finish our visit in time to catch a shuttle (without having to wait around too long for the following shuttle).
- Unable to bring a stroller. Bringing a stroller would have been helpful in accessing all parts of the Eisenhower property.
- Waited quite a while for departure shuttle.
- Waiting for return bus to Gettysburg visitor center
- was some confusion with where to pick up bus to site. several people told us it was down the walkway farther on the left, not on the right side
- We arrived late in the afternoon and got the last bus at 4p. Would have liked more time but had to catch the last bus out at 5p. Summertime hours could be extended.
- We cut our tour short because we didn't want to wait the hour for the next shuttle. I would have liked to spent more time in the "museum".
- We didn't have any problems, was very convenient.
- "We had a party of six and had to get tickets on the 12 pm shuttle. It was 9:50 am and there were spots available but the shuttle was going to be departing at 10am. Not sure why we could not get on since there were 10 min before departure. The 11am shuttle only had 5 spots available so we were them given the option of 12pm. We had already walked through the visitor enter the previous day so we had debated to skip the Eisenhower visit. We ultimately decide to start the battlefield driving tour and got back in time for the shuttle. On the way back from the Eisenhower Site our return shuttle became completely filled and a second shuttle was sent 10-15 minutes later to pick us up. The second shuttle was just about filled to capacity. I think a more frequent shuttle schedule on the weekend would have solved both issues listed. Now knowing I could reserve spot in advance would have helped the first issue but someone else would have had my first issue. Not sure if they would have taken the later shuttle."
- We had some trouble parking at the battlefield, but once we did that the shuttle was no problem at all.
• We had to park and walk to the visitors center but we expected that because we visited the weekend of the Gettysburg Reenactment.
• We rode on the shuttle. Parking at the Gettysburg Center was crowded and all handicapped was full.
• We visited last year and no problem parking our truck and trailer, and we had no problem this year either. We don't always find this nice of a parking area for our size.
• "WE visited on the 4th of July Weekend. We were really only interested in the Eisenhower site. However we had to park at the Gettysburg Visitor's center which was extremely crowded. We ended up in overflow parking. I would have rather parked at the Eisenhower Site.
• Also there was more I wanted to see at the Eisenhower Site but the Shuttle bus was leaving and there wasn't another one for an hour so we took the bus rather than waiting."
• We wanted time to get to farthest barn, but would have had to spend an hour to get next shuttle - also had to go to Gettysburg museum on same day.
• We were a party of 2. we were there on a Monday. We arrived at the National Military Visitor's Information Center around 10:30 am We got to see the historical film first and then took the 12 noon shuttle to the Eisenhower Farm. No problems.
• We were told by the bus driver that we could get a return visit at either 4:30pm or 5:15pm. We were then told to wait inside at the gift shop for the bus since it was hot/humid and the gift shop has a short film and air conditioning that we could enjoy. We were finished with the tour of the house and grounds by 4:00pm and decided to wait inside the gift shop as suggested. The bus arrived by about 4:15pm. We decided to stay and finish watching the film and then get onto the bus for the 4:30pm return visit. When we went to get onto the bus, the bus driver said it's full and we'll have to wait for the next bus. Mind you, we have 4 children and 2 adults in our group. There were 4 other people wanting to get onto the bus, as well, that couldn't. This could've easily been a non-issue if the bus driver had mentioned that other groups could also get onto the bus and it's a first come first served basis. We would've easily entered the bus and not waited in the gift shop and would've gone on with our day. Instead, we had to entertain the 4 children for another 45 min. after already seeing the house, grounds, and gift shop/film. It was very disappointing after we really enjoyed the house and grounds. It caused us problems with the rest of our vacation plans that day since we were on a time frame!!
• We would have stayed a little longer but would have needed to wait a whole hour for the shuttle back to the visitor's center, so we left without seeing everything.
• When we were ready to leave the site, the bus driver told the 2 of us he had no room for us. We had to wait until the next bus came. We thought it was strange because it was the same group we rode there with. We were the only ones left behind.
• While we wanted to explore more of the facility, we didn't want to wait another hour for the next shuttle, so we left without seeing all that we wanted to.
• Wished shuttle ran more often
• Would like private car parking available to people with disabilities. We were told none available.
• You can only take the shuttle. Would of been easier to take personal vehicles for less wait time

Encouragements to stay at site area longer

Question 21
What change(s) would encourage you to stay longer in the Eisenhower National Historic Site area (within 50 miles)?

• 2 hours was plenty of time to visit the home and other buildings.
• 30 minute shuttles
• A person portraying Eisenhower and giving accounts of things that went on at the farm.
• A restaurant or snack facility. Lots of walking w/o liquids or snacks.
• A tour guide be with us for the entire tour of the Eisenhower Farm.
• A tour narrative that told Eisenhower's story; historical facts; personal information. We saw many paintings and artifacts but the guide didn't refer to them or explain them. For example, we were told that the Eisenhowers received gifts from many different heads of state, but none of these were referred to or evident in the actual tour....
• A tour that included the Confederate sites at the Military Park as only the Northern sites were on the tour.
• Added exhibits at Eisenhower NHS. I envision a museum similar to the George C. Marshall Museum at VMI. So many possibilities for exhibits from his military background, presidency, and life after the White House. The farm equipment (tractors) really need to be better displayed and housed in a museum showcasing Ike's life on the farm. The barn is cool, but the tractors old truck kind of just sit stuck in time. With a little investment the Eisenhower NHS could be its' own destination and not just an added addition to Gettysburg NMP. Ike's uniforms could be displayed in a similar style like Elvis's outfits at Graceland. Ike's medals could be on full display. It would take a large fund raising initiative, but Ike's place could be the Graceland of Pennsylvania.
• Additional shuttle departure times from Eisenhower Home. Agenda and map of what areas within the Site would be open and have special activities/events that day. Snack and drink café.
• air conditioned place to eat lunch
• Automated audio description of each room and who stayed in that room.
• Available attractions need to be made More Clear !!!!!!! The museum visitors center needs more info laid out in a better easier to access way. The tours and attractions need better signage in a out of the way place so a newcomer can take the time to look over the situation and make a Clear Unrushed choice.
• Better coordination between visiting Eisenhower site and Gettysburg military park
• Better on-site communication about accessible areas at E.N.A.
• Better orientation of visitor when deboarding bus. We just stood around as no one was there. No signage.
• Can't say. Prefer to make day trips from the D.C. area.
• do not know
• Extended park hours.
• Finding alternatives to the parking situation at the visitors center.
• golf carts to see more of the property
• Good public transportation to get around Gettysburg and good public parking areas if touring by car
• Greater explanation of some item, callout, and explain in print. Greater explanation of Ike in W.W.II. Talk more about the highway system he pushed and civil rights he stood for. Didn't the park program start under Ike?
• had time to stay as long as we wanted
• Have a restaurant in the barn would bring a lot of people
• Have the shuttle do more pick ups. Bathrooms- I had to walk in the barn while a park ranger was giving a presentation. This is uncomfortable and disruptive.
• Having his cars open to browse
• I think everything is great. I had my five year old with me, so my shorter stay was more to not wanting to overload my daughter with historic sites when she had a promise of Hershey Park the following day. This day was for myself and my mother, but I didn't want to overdo it with my daughter the way my grandfather did when I was five. I had horrible memories of Gettysburg and Eisenhower's home, but now, after this visit, those memories have softened.
• I thought more artifacts concerning DDE would help and if labeled better* the gift shop lights were not working properly maybe a short film documented DDE career actual footage for example: many people are not aware of his involvements with Little Rock, the McCarthy hearings, the Federal Highway system,& his "Only Mistake" Earl Warren
• I would stay longer. I only had 2 days available to stay on this trip
• If there was a little food counter or restaurant.
• If there were more in the little museum there we might have stayed longer.
• Interpretive exhibitions, library, education programs
• It would be great if you guys opened the security room that was used and showed off the vehicles better. The rest of the place was great but just adding those two parts would add some more history.
• Later bus departures, maybe keep site open until 7p
• Longer group tour of grounds and house.
• Longer visit to the area.
• maybe if return shuttle left every 1/2 hour instead of hourly we could have stayed longer
• Maybe more information in the house. The barn was very interesting and I would have liked more info on the house.
• More assurance that the wait for a bus would not be long and that we should take all the time we need.
• More exhibits like those that are in the entrance to your current gift shop
• More exhibits.
• More flexible shuttle times.
• more frequent shuttle times from the museum/visitor center.
• More frequent shuttles back to visitor's center or on site parking
• More frequent shuttles from the site. On site parking
• More livestock viewing
• More places to sit outside and enjoy the beauty and rest.
• More ranger programs
• More ranger/volunteer programs
• more ranger-led programs
• more shuttle service times
• More talks and programming I guess.
• more things to do
• More time to roam the grounds maybe shorter intro presentations so we can tour longer.
• More to do at the site. We felt like we saw everything in a quick amount if time. Although it was peaceful and beautiful.
• More to see
• More tourist attractions.
• More vacation time for my husband.
• My only complaint is no onsite parking.

• None - we saw what we came to see.
• None needed except for shuttle more often
• None - We might have stayed longer but we personally had a tight schedule!
• none. we visited from the Netherlands
• none: a week was excellent. We rode our tandem bike to town, visitors center, all sites. We had a great time at Gettysburg. Took two bus tours and price was right and guides and drivers were excellent. Parking could be added.
• Not having really hot humid weather! We will come in the fall next time.
• Not sure I can suggest any changes the the Eisenhower visit. It was scheduled and planned well.
• Not sure. Visited a lot of cities and sites on this vacation.
• Nothing
• Nothing

Nothing - was an ideal addition to visiting the Gettysburg National Military Park Museum and Visitor Center
• Nothing for my wife and I. However, I have college educated children, the oldest is thirty, with an undergraduate degree at a liberal arts college and and a Doctorate in pharmacy. She knew Ike was a president, but was unaware of of his WW2 contributions. My youngest, who just graduated with a Professional Accounting degree from a liberal arts college, and took AP American history in HS, knew the name was important, but nothing else. I would encourage change in our education system which should teach American history in a good light. Not the negative shite which doesn't "Make America great again."

• Nothing I thought it was GREAT! I loved that the staff was on top of their game and if we asked an odd ball question that they didn't know the answer they looked it up for us.
• Nothing-I think the site is well done, just need more time on vacation to fully explore the farm area besides just the house.
• On Site Parking right at the site. For the general area I think there is enough to do. We have visited Gettysburg multiple times but this was the first time at the Eisenhower site. For this trip we came from Philadelphia but had to make a side trip to DC before going home so our time was limited by personnel plans.
• On site parking would be fantastic (the park doesn't get too much traffic so the parking spot wouldn't have to be big, or even paved!). Alternatively, increase shuttle frequency to half an hour.
• Parking at the site.
• plan more days to stay
• Replace the home's window glass with UV-blocking glass so the "shades" don't have to be drawn, making the home unnaturally dark and very unlike how the Eisenhowers actually lived and experienced the home. I feel I did not get a realistic experience of the home. New UV-blocking glass technology now allows the interior to be fully protected from fading and deterioration while also allowing normal, non-damaging visible sunlight to illuminate the interior. The unnatural darkness of the home, unlike how the Eisenhowers lived, was a MAJOR DISAPPOINTMENT.
• Short
• Shuttle facilities from main house to show barn.
• some refreshments
• The only thing would be if you could drive there you could spend more time and see more things. But I would recommend the shuttle because it shows up almost every half hour to an hour between.
• Unsure
• Unsure
• We needed to catch the last shuttle back to the visitor's center. We would have stayed longer if there was a later shuttle.
• We took the last shuttle to Eisenhower's home and we felt very rushed. We couldn't see the barn on the other side of the field, which would have been nice. We only toured the home and had little time for anything else. We couldn't go into the gift shop or anything else
• will not have reservations as early and would of spent more time at the house. did no realize there was so much to see
• Would like to have been able to see the vehicles in person rather than thru the windows.
• Would like to see longer hours on the weekends, but overall, I can't imagine ever needing to spend 3-4 hrs on site, unless there was a special event or party that would justify the time.
Visit again

Question 26b
Would you consider visiting Eisenhower National Historic Site again? YES.

- a nice place to visit and walk around
- Additional info
- Amazing piece if American history meant to be shared!
- Among other things, historically it is fascinating to see the golf cart that Winston Churchill sat in on his trip here or just where the Eisenhower's lived and what were their interests.
- An interesting man, I want my children to know more about.
- Bad weather so did not see all of site.
- because Eisenhower was a very admirable person
- Because history is vey important and family who comes later in the summer needs an opportunity to learn from this historic site.
- Because I like visiting places like that and might hear or see something I missed before.
- Bring my parents. Uniquely preserves 1970s in time.
- Bring other family to show some of our history. Excellent time capsule of material items with historic value. I learned things I did not know before going.
- Can always learn more.
- Close (local) and missed the show barn..
- Did not get to see everything I wanted to see.
- didn't get to see it all
- Didn't have time to see the farm.
- Different tours might offer different info. Each tour guide gives slightly different info.
- Enjoy historical homes.
- Enjoy the history. Bring family members to visit.
- Enjoyable
- Enjoyed it
- Enjoyed it very much - more to see than one visit allowed.
- Enjoyed learning about the personal life of a past President.
- Enjoyed our visit very much. If we are in the area again we would stop.
- Enjoyed ourselves
- Enjoyed the grounds and the home. Interesting info presented during tour.
- Enjoyed the house and furniture - brought back great memories.
- Enjoyed the house tour and the grounds.
- Enjoyed the tour and seeing the inside of the house and personal items.
- Enjoyed the visit, would probably see things missed first time
- Every time I visit I learn something New.
- Everything was great and a lot of information
• excellent atmosphere
• Excellent exhibits/park. Less known as well so it keeps the crowds away allowing for a more personal experience!
• Get a more in depth experience of living there.
• Good, unique experience and knowledgeable guides
• Great
• Grounds lovely. Tour guides are knowledgeable and nice. Property well maintained.
• Historical interest
• Historical significance
• I didn't realize how much time I would need to explore the site. I was a little rushed due to a previously booked tour. I would like to go back and take my time.
• I enjoy it (history in my days), would like my family to see.
• I enjoyed them.
• I grew up during the Eisenhower years. He is part of who we are today.
• I like history.
• I like Ike. And history - I like the opportunities the NPS and DOI give us to see our country's history and memory, natural or otherwise.
• I like the history and feel of the place.
• I liked it a lot and wish I'd had more time to visit but had to be nearly to Pittsburg by night fall.
• I love the Ranger led program as well as the volunteer program. I also liked that we did not feel rushed or pushed through the house tour. The information and history of the different items in the house were great.
• I loved this park. It is a National treasure.
• I would bring other people with me to experience this site.
• I would like to bring our family back to enjoy the site and spend more time exploring.
• I would like to but it may not be likely. We do live a long way away. We had not been in PA since I worked there about 20 years ago.
• I would like to come again to spend more time and to bring other family members.
• I would like to revisit when I'm a less distracted mom. This is of no fault of the site, just a 5 year old in tow is difficult and I knew that going in.
• I would like to spend more time walking around the grounds.
• If I came to Gettysburg w/friends who have not been here before.
• If I visit, it won't be for a while. This is my second visit in 10 years.
• If I was with other people who had not previously visited.
• If in the area, I probably would, but I have a lot more history of this country to see.
• If other friends/fam wanted to see.
• If someone in my party had not been there, I would return with them. However, I feel I got a fairly complete coverage in my visit
• Ike was a very important leader in the history of our great nation and it is not tiring to go over his accomplishments to protect the liberty that we enjoy in the USA!!!!
• I'm very interested in General Eisenhower and his life, especially at Gettysburg
• interested in the subject
• Interested to explore the outdoor areas a bit more since we didn't have time to previously. Also interested to take a ranger-led tour of inside the house.
• Interesting
• Interesting historical site.
• Interested, would like to bring our grandchildren.
• Interesting.
• It a great place to the history. I just love what it's all about.
• It is a very historical and interesting site and I enjoyed the ranger's talk on D-day and the materials carried in a soldier's pack. Would like to hear other ranger talks if I visited again.
• It is excellent.
• It is very interesting
• It was a very enjoyable experience.
• It was a very interesting tour. It makes history real to us.
• It was beautiful. I had been to Gettysburg twice previously but never had know how to get out to the Eisenhower home. Would love to see more to do out there. Or access as part of the Gettysberg drive.
• It was great and information can't all be digested in one visit. We came on an anniversary weekend and it was crowded but we beat the 100Th.
• It was interesting
• It was interesting and fun!
• It was interesting and very well kept.
• It was interesting. Would like to see some animals
• It was very interesting and I would go again.
• It was very interesting and some of our children are too young to remember this trip.
• It was very interesting. It would be nice to see the cars and more money invested into the grounds.
• It was very interesting. Mamie Eisenhower is one of my idols.
• It was very interesting. The guides were very good. Would like to hear other perspectives.
• It was very pleasant and interesting.
• It was very well done and I know I missed some of the things.
• It's a great experience and always learn new things.
• It's a part of history.
• It's fun.
• It's interesting.
• It's really a wonderful place to visit, see and learn about President Eisenhower and his family and how they lived. It's part of our American history. We absolutely loved our visit there and hope to bring our kids and grandkids to visit it someday.
• just want to
• Lot to see and do
• Love history, interesting place.
• Love the history.
• Loved it very much - love all of the history.
• Loved seeing the time period (furniture) furnishings.
• Loved the history.
• more grounds to see then my time allowed
• More things to see.
• More time to enjoy everything, especially the outside as it was a little rainy. Also, the guides each have an individual perspective on things.
• More time to tour farm and grounds
• More to see!
• My family was not with me. It was interesting. Went with my aunt.
• My favorite President.
• My husband wasn't with me, and he would enjoy it.
• Needed more time to see& visit everything.
• nice site
• Our family loves historical sites. Anytime we have visitors in from out of state, we like to do the entire Gettysburg experience.
• Our troop does a rotation of visiting 1 of 4 historical sites each year
• real interesting
• See again
• See the rest of it.
• Show to my visitor guests. I live in Arlington, VA.
• Site is so relaxing and beautiful. Any future trip to Gettysburg would definitely require another visit to the General's home.
• Something new can always be learned about the Eisenhowers
• spend more time
• Take a friend, relative, or grandchild.
• Take other people there
• The grounds and surrounding area is beautiful. I'd love the rest of my family to see it.
• The tour and house were very good and would like to return with less of a crowd so it would be more enjoyable.
• There is so much more to see.
• To help others learn the importance of Ike in the history of our country.
• to learn more about the site, may have missed or over looked something at the site
• To notice more from the exhibits the second time that I might have missed on my first visit. Ask more questions of the knowledgeable volunteers and rangers about the site and it's history.
• To see improvements upon the site. New exhibits, etc.
• To see more of the grounds
• to see the few things we missed on this trip
• To see what we were not able to get to.
• To share with friends and family.
• To soak in all that history again.
• To take my spouse
• To take other family members who have not been there.
• Very beautiful and interesting.
• very educational
• Very enjoyable and informative.
• Very enjoyable want to see more.
• Very fun and educational
• Very informative.
• Very interested in presidential sites and Civil War history.
• Very interesting
• Very Interesting
• Very interesting
• Very interesting and the Guide added a lot ---- when you have good guides you always learn something new. In addition, it was a beautiful and well kept site.
• very interesting place
• Very interesting tour.
• Very interesting, due to time saw house but didn't get to walk through the farm and would like to in the future
• Very interesting. I like history and found the visit very informative.
• Very interesting...love of history.
• Very nice and interesting
• Visit during a different season and learn new stories. Tours in general tend to differ due to the ranger/tour guide because of their knowledge and personal interests. I thought it was pretty interesting to see all of the marks on the floor by the president's desk from his golf shoes. My wife had taken the tour the previous year and that was not mentioned. It is also a beautiful site and very peaceful. Not surprising the Eisenhowers picked that location for their home.
• Want to go at my pace, not the crowds and on a cooler day!
• Was reasonably priced. Was interesting and relaxing.
• We didn't get to see the working farm.
• We liked seeing the house and might want to look at more of the farm.
• We loved it.
• We loved seeing the home, hearing about their private lives. We only had 1 hour because it was the last tour - didn't get a chance to enjoy the visitor center or outside area. Rainy day.
• WE missed a few of the barn exhibits. We also visit a lot of historic homes. It was really nice to see one that was more recent built and furnished.
• We really enjoyed the visit. Showed how down to earth Eisenhower was.
• We really like US history. I am a big fan of pres. gen eisenhower
• we thoroughly enjoyed it
• We were somewhat rushed (our scheduling problem, not NPS’S.) I'd linger a bit longer!
• We weren't able to visit all we wanted.
• We will come with other people.
• We would have liked to spend more time on the grounds and in the indoor exhibit area.
• Well, I would hope for more specific stories of things that took place there and I love presidential history. It also helps that it is connected to Gettysburg.
• Why not?? It's great history...
• Would be able to see even more of the site.
• Would bring grandchildren when they are older.
• Would have stayed longer to walk the grounds and watch the videos/look in bookstore if our own personal time would have allowed it. Will be back!
• Would like more time to take Ranger led program and see the farm
• Would like to bring grandchildren.
• would like to bring other family members
• Would like to spend more time on grounds and share experience with family.
• would like to visit again with other family members
• You always see something on 2nd visit that you missed on the first visit.
Question 26c
Would you consider visiting Eisenhower National Historic Site again? NO.

- already seen it
- Already seen it now
- Already seen it once.
- Because I've seen it and want to travel elsewhere.
- Been there
- Been there - done that.
- Been there done that
- Been there done that.
- Commercialization and cost for a National Park
- Delighted we were there. We are seniors and have other places to see and enjoy. Plus limited income.
- Did see all of it already
- Distance, may if passing through.
- Don't need to see the site again.
- Felt we did a thorough job and saw everything we could
- Have been there many times, 5 times.
- Have seen it already so would probably not return
- Have visited twice
- Having seen it I don't think we will return.
- I already saw it.
- I feel I got enough information when I was there. I toured the rooms and attended a WWII presentation. I felt that this was enough
- I have seen it
- I saw everything that was offered.
- I think I have seen everything at the site. I don't think it would be worth a revisit unless there is something new.
- It's far away.
- I've already seen it. Not enough to do.
- I've seen it twice.
- I've visited two times already.
- Live 6+ hours away.
- Live pretty far away
- "need better in depth information. the volunteers were informative but I felt the tour was more like a tour of a 1950 slice of life and not nearly enough about DDE"
- No need to again.
- No reason
- Not a site that is interesting enough to warrant another visit.
• not much was missed this visit. Would not pay again to see a little bit more. If there were additional shuttle times we would have stayed here longer. 1 shuttle per hour is too few.
• Not necessary to see again.
• Not until you do away with the window shades in favor of using UV-blocking window glass.
• Not worth the time and effort to have to schedule and see nothing new.
• nothing more to see there
• Nothing worth coming back
• Once is enough.
• Once is sufficient
• Once is sufficient.
• Once was good enough.
• One of those sites that stays the same so no reason to re-visit.
• Probably not since we took our time and enjoyed everything there is to see.
• Saw everything and have many other places to visit.
• Saw everything we planned on seeing.
• Saw it once. Was interesting but doesn't require another visit.
• So many things to see in this wonderful country, if going by may stop again.
• The shuttle bus was over booked and there wasn't enough shuttles. Wasted time waiting in the bus!!
• The site is far from our home and our travels most likely will not take us into the area again.
• There are too many other places to see.
• Too far from Iowa.
• Unless new things would be added to the tour, I don't believe it would be worth the trip.
• We are from California, so we were only in the area specifically to see the Gettysburg battlefields. While the Eisenhower site was interesting to see once, I don't think anyone in the group felt like it needed to be visited more than once.
• We are seniors and have been in the area 3 times in our lives already!
• We are trying to hit as many national parks as we can over the next few years - since we spent a considerable amount of time at Gettysburg and later Antietam, it is unlikely we will be back through this way any time soon.
• We enjoyed the beautiful farm, but there are so many other interesting things to see!
• We have been there 2 times.
• We have SO much left to see in the US that this was our first return trip to Gettysburg in over 20 years.
• We learned what we wanted to in one visit.
• We saw it very good this first time.
• We usually do not go back to a place we've already visited.
• We were very pleased with our visit and see no need to go back.
• We would recommend it to others, but we are going to tour elsewhere with our family.

Question 31

What did you and your personal group like most about this visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site?

• 1.House. 2.Farm equipment (would have liked it to be displayed better).
• 1950's furnishings and the fact that you kept it authentic; family photos
• All
• All of it!!
• Always wanted to see Eisenhower's retirement home. Enjoyed it - so 50's! And learned more about Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower.
• Antiques
• Authenticity of site.
• Authenticity of the household furnishings
• Battlefield tour, a sense of how he and Mamie lived.
• Beautiful Grounds House.
• beautiful scenery and location combined with the interior furnishing.
• Beautiful site all around!
• Beautiful soroundings
• Being surrounded by the battlefield.
• Bucolic environments; VEry engaged volunteer guides
• buildings
• Children's Secret Service Activity
• Contents of the exhibits.
• Convenience all around
• Cyclorama. Most other films were plagerized from the History channel.
• Eisenhower's Den
• Eisenhower's paintings. They were a surprise.
• Enjoyed the house & information that was shared.
• Enjoyed the house and info that the guide gave.
• Enjoyed the whole experience!
• Enjoyed tour of Ike's farm also Gettysburg tour!

• Everything! We loved the history of Eisenhower and the stories about some of the items in the house.
• Getting to know the history of the site and how it came to be in the Eisenhower family.
• Grounds and interior rooms.
• Having just finished the Bret Baier book on Eisenhower, the tour was extremely interesting.
• Heard a lot about it - been meaning to see this site for years - like about 60 years!
• Hearing about their personal lives.
• Hearing stories about President Eisenhower and seeing what their home was like. The grounds were beautiful.
• His biography - the story of the man both military presidential and personal.

House brns
House kept as it was when they lived in it
House restored very well.
House tour
house tour and jr secret service
House tour.
How friendly the guides were.
How much the house looked like the Eisenhower's could just walk right in and all would be as they left it.
How well it was all displayed and do at your leisure.
I enjoyed finding a few new things that I didn't see on my last visit five years ago.
I enjoyed seeing the home and learning the history of the Eisenhower family. My son enjoyed the Junior Ranger program while exploring the site looking for clues.
I enjoyed the glimpse via the home and farm operation into the real person Eisenhower was.
I enjoyed the personal tour by a knowledgeable park ranger and the stories on how he acquired the home and who lived and stayed there and a look into each room of the home. I enjoyed the putting greens and the well-kept outdoors as well.
I had taken a class through our local junior college about Mrs. Ike and I wanted to visit the farm site.
I liked seeing the historic pieces in the home and hearing its history from the ranger.
I liked seeing the location and the period house
I liked the historical artifacts and vehicles. My wife enjoyed the furnishings and the property.
I liked the way the house was preserved with all of the personal artifacts so that you could really get a sense of the home life of the Eisenhowers.
I love seeing historical things and like to visit past presidents homes and libraries if I'm traveling near them.
I loved the house and history. The guys all loved the barns and stories.
I loved the openness of it and the ability to walk throughout the house.
I most liked the organization of the Eisenhower home tour and friendly, knowledgeable staff which made understanding and enjoying the site a very fulfilling experience.
In general it was nice to see a historic home that was decorated from this time period. There isn't much preserved from that time period. The other enjoyable aspect was the view from the house and the peaceful atmosphere after all the congestion around the visitor's center.

Interior of house, with guide information/tour
Interior of the rooms
• It was all great.
• It was an amazing spot in the world, beautiful views, seemed like a surprisingly simple home for a President of the United States, very interesting.
• It was an authentic trip back in history. I loved feeling like the Eisenhowers were so much like my grandparents.
• It was like stepping back in time.
• Junior Ranger Program
• Just a great tour.
• Learning about Eisenhower's life from childhood through retirement. Also, we loved seeing the house as it would have been in the 50s-60s.
• Learning about history and Eisenhower 's accomplishments
• Learning about President Eisenhower and seeing where he and Maimie lived. The history of the home etc.
• Learning about the history of the farm and the role in played in Eisenhower's life and our Country's history
• Learning about the home, stories of visiting dignitaries, post-presidency use, the agriculture uses, the landscape
• Learning about the person President Eisenhower was.
• Learning more about the Eisenhowers, the fact that the home looked like they just left it yesterday and the special program we heard by the ranger on D-Day. Also, the ability to freely walk the farm grounds and explore the different buildings and garden.
• Learning the history
• Like the wide open vistas.
• Liked the personal interest stories. What happened at the farm. What Ike did while there. What things/objects came from where. That Ike painted while there. That Ike signed certain bills while there recuperating. Loved the drapes which is also the material in Mamie's dress on the brochure cover. Liked that their actual furnishings and personal things are there. Liked the tidbits of information relating to their personal lives.
• Listening to the personal history of the Eisenhowers and how their home played in that history.
• Lots of personal items in the house. Self led tours for part of it. The beginning ranger led program about military equipment on D Day.
• Loved Eisenhower's house.
• Loved the history, the barns, wish tour was more detailed, maybe if you're not busy make tours a little longer love to hear the personal stories. If busy of course you have to shorten the tours.
• Mamie's museum.
• My grandson loved the junior secret service program. He enjoyed the info about the cars and the secret service men and women. I think this is a wonderful program for kids it keeps them interested and involved during the entire visit. The rangers and volunteers were also very interested in helping the kids complete their books and find information. Wonderful wonderful program.

- My husband loved the cattle! My aunt and I enjoyed the house.
- Nostalgic
- Nothing specific, this site in general.
- Opportunity to wander around. Access to information thru smartphone was excellent.
- Our intern Talia was fantastic! She was knowledgeable and so passionate about her work. Learned so much in her Monuments Men presentation.
- Personal stories, information house tour.
- Ranger-talk outside of Ike's Connection to Gettysburg.
- Really enjoyed the WWII history information, my son loves WWII history. He is the one who insisted we go on the tour after he read about it in brochures from Gettysburg. My husband and I had been there about 20 years ago.
- Rich in information and in showing President Eisenhower's home life and personality. Also that it is a hidden gem park!
- Rooms still maintained as the Eisenhower's lived.
- Scenery
- seeing all the activities he engaged in after his retirement, the diverse visitors to the farm, and his basic values and way of life
- seeing Eisenhower's personal items and learning more about him as a man and a husband
- seeing how a former famous General and past President lived in retirement and the history of the couple
- Seeing how a leader of our country lived after his contributions to America
- Seeing how President Eisenhower lived - learning his personal hobbies and interests.
- Seeing Ike and Mame personal residence. Barbecue and putting green.
- Seeing inside of main house.
- Seeing such a well-preserved preserve of history, that painted a very clear picture about how the president and his wife lived.
- Seeing the Eisenhower's home
- Seeing the farm and understanding more about why he moved there
- Seeing the inside of the home and the presentation outside about the soldier's gear.
- Seeing the inside of the home.
- seeing the personal living space of the family and the gifts they had been given
- Seeing their home.
- Shade trees; guided tour,
- Such a wonderful part of US history. Learned a lot. Liked the barns/animals/landscaping. Will come back. Such a good use of tax dollars!
- talking to the young volunteer and the initial intro by park ranger
- That it was left just as it was when they lived there.
• that the house and the grounds are preserved as they were when the Eisenhower's lived there
• The ability to see a true historic treasure. The rangers were well informed and took pride in their presentation.
• The antique cars, 1970s home decor, the secret service command post
• The barns and scenery.
• The beautiful surrounding landscape.
• The beauty of the site.
• The beauty of the site: the vistas, the lovely condition of the home and grounds and the farm
• The bus tour and knowledge of the guides and bus drivers!
• The care that is taken to upkeep the house and the grounds. Love the trail from house to the farm area.
• The cars and vehicles that were used by the Eisenhowers
• The Eisenhower N.H.S. was a wonderful surprise for us. Our primary intent was to visit Gettysburg. However our visit to the E.N.H.S. proved to be the high light of our family trip. 2 members of the group were young teenagers when the Eisenhowers were on the scene. 1 of our group is retired from the Army and is a big fan of "Ike."
• The fact that 97% of the artifacts belonged to the Eisenhowers and how well they are displayed.
• "The Farmhouse
• The history of his life including WW 2 and his family life"
• The furnishings and history behind the objects in the house. It brought the Eisenhowers to life for me as real people.
• The gardens and barn.
• The good quality of the House and grounds. Everything kept in good and excellent condition!
• The grounds.
• The guided indoor tour
• The guided tour. They have so much knowledge
• The historical history of the house.
• the history
• The history
• The history and nostalgia of the home. Unable to ever visit White house again, so able to visit a President's home. Only President to be liked by both parties.
• The history behind the stories presented at the site.
• The history of the buildings and how the facility was used.
• The history of the Eisenhowers. Knowing more about their personal lives. The importance of the times they lived in and how the decisions made then and successful outcomes reflect the world we live in today.
• The home
• The home and items were interesting. We had a really great experience with a ranger as we were leaving and stayed for 10 more minutes listening to him. It was unplanned and by chance as we were leaving the house.
• The home.
• The house
• The house
• The house
• the house
• The house and being able to tour through it.
• The house and farm related buildings
• The house and show barn.
• the house and the grounds

• The house interior.
• The house itself.
• the house tour
• the house tour and walking around the nice paths with flowers
• The house tour.
• The house tour.
• "The house tour.
• Me personally, the summer kitchen and putting green."
• The house was 98% the way the Eisenhower's lived in it. The stories about the family.
• The house, the pictures and furniture, the history lesson, please make living room brighter - hard to see after coming inside from sun!
• The house.
• The house. Would like to see his cars better.
• The information about the President and how it served his family and our nation. The beauty of the place.
• the information and seeing the house.
• The information given by the volunteer staff and the farmhouse in general.
• The interior home rooms and the show barn tour
• The interior of the house.
• The interior of the house.
• The interior of the house. I especially liked seeing the books displayed on their shelves.
• the interior rooms
• The Junior Ranger program was awesome for our 7-year old who was along. Not only did he learn a thing or two, but so did we. We loved having to answer the questions and being focused ourselves while helping him.
• The kids enjoyed completing the Junior Ranger booklet, and being able to run around near the stables.
• The knowledgeable rangers.
• The learning experience.
• The National Park Service guide was very knowledgeable and engaging, and we enjoyed the "frozen in time" quality of the Eisenhower home.
• the overall tour and guide info provided proved very interesting
• The park ranger/tour guide. Loved him. I could tell he took great pride in his job, and wanted to display the site to the best of his ability. The volunteers, the young kids, were just as dedicated. Not sure if it is due to personal interest, or due to the lead guy rubbing off onto them. They were all excellent.
• The presentation by one park ranger about the equipment used by the soldiers on D-Day during WWI. That was very interesting.
• The presentation on D Day by the Park Ranger. It put the President's importance in perspective for my 10 year old.
• The preservation of house and grounds.
• The property was beautifully maintained and the volunteers and rangers did a great job providing information that enhanced the tour. We really enjoyed seeing the furnishings and interior of the home and learning about the history.
• The ranger led tours for the both the exterior and the interior. Both guides were superb.
• The ranger's discussion about "D" Day, what the soldiers wore. Also enjoyed the movie.
• The ranger-talk held outside about the Secret Service during Eisenhower's time at the home.
• The residence and ranger talk.
• The restoration of the house and the beauty of the property.
• The road side cannons and monument.
• The Secret Service Junior Ranger program was VERY fun to complete!
• The Secret Service special tour given by the intern was wonderful. We learned so much about Ike and Mamie, their relationship with the Secret Service, and the logistics of the Secret Service having to provide protection for them. The intern did an outstanding job!
• The side tour regarding D-Day.
• The sight of the entire farm with all the buildings. Then the interior of the house!
• the talk by the volunteer
• The tour guide info.
• The tour guide was very informative. We liked listening to her talk and walking the grounds.
• The tour guides
• The tour of the Eisenhower's home and the expertise of the guides
• The tour of the house and grounds very well kept - like a time capsule. The park ranger was very informative of the Eisenhowers and how they lived.
• The tour of the house.
• the unrestricted time allowed to visit the Eisenhower's home
• the upkeep of the grounds, the authenticity of the home and the maintenance of the historical content
• The way the house was kept just the way it was when they died. All the beautiful personal possessions and paintings around the house. The beautiful grounds were kept nice. Great tour guide.
• The whole place.
• The WWII presentation and personal conversation with Ranger.
• Their home
• there wasn't really a highlight
• Thinking of Pres. and Mrs. Eisenhowers' lives and picturing them in their beautiful and comfortable home. The grounds were wonderful and so peaceful.
• To see where the Eisenhowers lived.
• Tour and scenery
• Tour guide was very informative. House was clean and narrative given not too lengthy.
• Tour of Eisenhower home.
• Tour of home
• Touring home
• Touring the grounds and seeing the views
• Touring the home
• Very authentic, well maintained, interesting info about a president that in my opinion isn't a more "known" one.
• Very cool
• very educational we are from Boone Ia and that is were Mamie is from
• Very informative
• Very informative.
• Very informative...
• very interesting history facts about the president.
• Visiting the home to see the interior and hearing the volunteer describe their life there.
• Visiting the house and hearing the stories.
• Visiting the house.
• Walking into the home, it felt like I was walking into an untouched time capsule.
• Walking through the house and grounds.
• Walking thru the house, I felt I had been transported back to the 50's and in a time capsule. To boot, I'm reading "The Fifties" by David Halberstam.
• We enjoyed seeing the cars and learning about how the president lived.
• We enjoyed seeing the house and grounds.
• We enjoyed the house the most. The intern info about the ss was great. Overall, we enjoyed it. We were old enough to know Ike's historical significance. For younger people, our education system is failing us when it comes to history. You have your work cut out for you.

- We like everything we saw. No complaints.
- We like Ike! We did not like the condescending, rude, and racist woman inside the house.
- We like to visit historical residences.
- We liked seeing the home and the different things in the living room. Walking around and seeing the farm with the cows and farm equipment was peaceful and cool to get a sense of the President.
- We liked the history and stories about the Eisenhowers. We had fun doing the Junior Ranger Activity with my youngest child.
- We loved the bus driver and the interior of the house and barn
- We loved the short program on D Day. The next thing would be talking to the rangers.
- We were both very impressed with the whole facility. Great job!
- We were not aware this site was in Gettysburg, was a pleasant surprise!
- What I really appreciated was how humble or down to earth the Eisenhowers seemed. They seemed to be like normal Americans, accept she had a few servants.
- WWII discussion, the estate and grounds

Question 32

What did you and your personal group like least about this visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site?

- A little spread out, hard to get to all the sites and we got there a little late.
- A refreshment stand selling cold water would have been nice.
- all good
- All was good
- Although Ike did many things and seeing his home shows a side of him and gives contrast to the man, we are most interested in what General Eisenhower did to win W.W.II. and what President Eisenhower accomplished. Don't assume we know all that. Spangler Farm was a much better tour. They did a great job with a tiny fraction of what the Eisenhower site has to work with. We spent more time there and will definitly go back to Spangler.
- barn
- Barn
- Bathrooms
- Bathrooms not easily accessed. Never did find in the barn. Gift shop felt like everyone could hear me. Too hot to walk to the south barns. Perhaps a golf cart shuttle?
- Being a at the mercy of the shuttle schedule.
- Being in the house with all the others, made it feel crowded.
- Book store
• concerns about the shuttle and planning enough time for the visit
• cow barn; wish there had been more displays/exhibits/things to see
• Crowd
• Did not give ourselves enough time at the Site before our time to be back at the visitor center for the film. 1-1/2 hours was not enough for the shuttle ride to and from, and touring all of the grounds. Needed at least 30 more minutes.
• Enjoyed everything.
• Enjoyed visit. Nothing negative to say.
• Everything was fine. I would have liked to go into the barn on the main property.
• Felt a little rush due to limited hours at the visitor center. Overall, had a very nice time well at the site.
• Felt like we were rushed through the house by the ranger, who was giving the tour. Didn't really get to see everything in the living room.
• Felt rushed because of bus times.
• felt rushed because shuttle left on the half hour, didn't want to wait another half hour for next one
• Female friend could not do the stairs - so she only saw bottom floor of the house.
• Few outdoor markers
• Had more time out of the day, a lot to see
• Had to wait about 40 minutes to catch the shuttle bus back to the main visitor center. Would have been nice if the shuttle came every 1/2 hour instead of a whole hour as we were short on time to visit the main museum.
• Having to get a scheduled time to visit.
• Having to take a shuttle bus and be on its schedule vs. my own
• Heat
• Hot
• I can't say I recalled anything I didn't like.
• I have seen enough of farms. I had no interest in seeing the cow barn. Though I do appreciate Ike's interest in beef cattle.
• I think it is a little expensive. I think the problem for some (not me--I am an Eisenhower fan) is that they are on a family trip and the money just starts to add up. Just a thought.
• I wish there were more stories or pick out an event in world history and tell how the Eisenhowers played their part on the world stage. What I really appreciated was how humble or down to earth the Eisenhowers seemed. They seemed to be like normal Americans, accept she had a few servants.
• Inability to see all rooms in the house
• Interior tours have too many people. Group size needs cut down to 12 or so to make it enjoyable.
• interruptions of the tour guide's talk by children's irrelevant questions
• It is a bit of hindrance waiting on shuttle - could run it a few more times per hour.
• It was a hot day.
• It was fine. It happened to be a gorgeous day, too.
• It was great.
• It was hot.
• It was really hot outside that day.
• Just being able to see the vehicles through windows.
• Lack of shuttle buses.
• Left a little early to catch the bus or have to stay another hour.
• Length of time guide spoke in front of the house, and this survey is too long.
• Liked it all!
• Liked it all.
• Limited bus timing
• Little details were available about elaboration on Ike's involvement in service, Cold War, WWII. Need exhibits! Garage wasn't lit or accessible enough. No original bloodline of cattle were present.
• My only complaint would be the shuttle times. I would have liked to see some of Mrs. Eisenhower's dresses on display, or more pictures of the family.
• My son is 8 years old. I fear some day the younger generation will not even know who President Eisenhower was let alone have an interest in coming to see his home in Gettysburg. I think the secret service program for the kids is a good idea, but maybe if they can make something for the little older kids. Note that my son didn't participate in the program so I can't say for sure, but he wasn't interested. We talked to him prior to our arrival a little bit about President Eisenhower so he understood what we were going to see.

Nothing. Not that the site had much control, but the weather was perfect for late June.
I do not have one thing to complain about this visit. Wish I could offer constructive criticism to improve things, but it was seriously a perfect day.

Our initial program by ranger rambled on and shortened the time to see everything else. We had to skip the barn trip all together.

Outside area.
Outside tour difficult.
parking
Parking
Parking and ticketing was confusing.
Perhaps the shuttle bus departure times can also be posted on the outside of the Reception Center as well as inside.
Ranger programs had different topics on different days/time. The program most interested in was not offered this day/time.
Really, it was fine. It would be fun to have a few more choices of interest talks maybe (offered at different times) in addition to the guided tours.
Seeing all the rooms which we did not.
Seeing the surrounding grounds. This needs to be paid more attention too.
Shuttle schedule (literally change it from 1hr to 30 min that's all!)
Shuttle wait (not bad though).
Since we visited in the summer, we had to follow the schedule of the shuttle. We like to spend as little time or as much time as we like at a given place and do not like to have to wait for a shuttle.

Size of group
So very hot in summer - cannot do anything about that though.
Stable bathrooms stairs going upstairs, hallways were tight with a group, hard to see when some people blocked rooms, but it was not worth fighting about.
That I could stay longer.
That they changed the whole original little house--they did save the beams for Ike's man room....
That we were unable to drive to the site.
That you have to take a bus to get there & that it isn't very well advertised that you can only take a bus to go to the site.
The air conditioning was not working that day!
The bathrooms
the bookstore
The bus shuttle service. There needs to be more times and/or the bus driver needs to be specific and say it's a first come-first serve basis to get a return trip!!! We had to wait 45 minutes with 4 children that were hot, tired, and had seen the house and grounds and gift shop film already!! It turned a enjoyable trip into a negative!
The cars were not on display!
The farm equipment was not being cared for.
The high temperature and dew point.
The improperly announced program. (There was a sign at the service center that said "The Program starts here." I was waiting there with two other people. But it had already started at another location when one of us asked a park ranger about it.)
the infrequent buses (hourly)
The only thing we didn't like was the fact that there was trouble with the A.C. and 1 of our group had to leave the house before touring it.
The outdoor ranger talk about security provided by secret service or CIA. Lost our interest as it was too long and very boring.
The poor signage in the parking lots.
The ranger introduction to the site was too long.
The transportation issues
The visit was great!
The volunteer guides within the Eisenhower home could use a refresher training - There was a bit too much redundancy between what the exterior guide and interior guide were talking about.
the wait for the next shuttle bus
The walking that you had to do from site to site.
• The way the NP used other things as part of the NP
• The way too dark interior of the home and the proscription of even flashless photography inside the home.
• The weather:)
• There was nothing to dislike.
• There was nothing we could find fault with. Had a great visit. Enjoyed it all
• Too dark in living room.
• Too hot outside.
• tour narrative
• Trapped by taking the shuttle.
• wait for crowded buses, not being able to park on site
• Wait for the fall.
• wait time for the return buss shuttle
• Waiting for the bus
• Waiting for the shuttle when we were ready to go because we missed the previous one
• Walking between the house and the barns area. There also wasn't a lot of signage around the barns.
• Wanted longer ranger/guided tour.
• Was not dissatisfied in any way.
• was quite happy with the visit nothing negative
• wasn't able to see all of the video because it was so interesting.
• We couldn't find skeet shooting area.
• we did not have enough time due to dinner reservations
• We did not like the condescending, rude, and racist woman inside the house.
• We didn't dislike it, but the little museum there just didn't have that much of interest.
• we enjoyed it all
• WE enjoyed it all, but if you want something then it would have to be that the rubber walkway did not go all the way to the barns.
• We enjoyed the facilities; it was just hot and a lot of walking. :)
• We had to cut our time there short in order to stick to our schedule of activities for the day. Had the shuttle bus run more frequently (say every 30 minutes rather than every 90 minutes) then we could have stayed longer.
• We just barely missed the 1 hour bus and had a long wait for the next one.
• We liked everything!
• We liked everything.
• We liked it all.
• We liked it better before the park service was involved.
• We need about 1/2 an hour more but we didn't want to have to wait for the shuttle.
• We rushed out of the visitor center without seeing everything to get to the bus on time because the bus would leave and not return for another hour.
• WE took the last shuttle in and felt way too rushed. It should be open at least a half our to an hour longer than it was to see more of the grounds.
• We weren't prepared ahead for the timing of the Gettysburg stuff and the Eisenhower estate - especially the timing of trolleys.
• We would have liked to see his cars.
• We would have liked to see the Presidential car and golf cart.
• We would have stayed longer if return shuttle was every 1/2 hour instead of every hour, it was a very hot day to walk around, may have been able to get to show barn if a little cooler and had a little more time.
• Wish I could use my NPS Access Pass. A bit pricey otherwise.
• Wish shuttles ran more often.
• With two small kids, they lost interest in tour guide quickly.
• Would have liked more anecdotes about them?
• Would have liked to see more of the house.
• Would have liked to see the cars.
• Would like to have better view of the vehicles in the garage

Anything else?

Question 37
Is there anything else you and your personal group would like to tell us about your visit to Eisenhower National Historic Site?

• Added exhibits at Eisenhower NHS. I envision a museum similar to the George C. Marshall Museum at VMI. So many possibilities for exhibits from his military background, presidency, and life after the White House. The farm equipment (tractors) really need to be better displayed and housed in a museum showcasing Ike's life on the farm. The barn is cool, but the tractors old truck kind of just sit stuck in time. With a little investment the Eisenhower NHS could be its' own destination and not just an added addition to Gettysburg NMP. Ike's uniforms could be displayed in a similar style like Elvis's outfits at Graceland. Ike's medals could be on full display. It would take a large fund raising initiative, but Ike's place could be the Graceland of Pennsylvania.
• Again, I love the openness of it.
• Again, the Secret Service Junior Ranger program was well designed in a way that we learned together and had fun. Some are too difficult and this was done "just right". Adults learn just as much as the "junior" ranger in this process, so this is not "kids stuff". Thanks for offering it!
• Available attractions need to be made More Clear !!!!!!! The museum visitors center needs more info laid out in a better easier to access way . The tours and attractions need better signage in a out of the way place so a newcomer can take the time to look over the situation and make a Clear Unrushed choice.

- AWESOME!
- Bathrooms not easily accessed. Never did find in the barn. Gift shop felt like everyone could hear me. Too hot to walk to the south barns. Perhaps a golf cart shuttle?
- Coach tour buses are clean, safe and on time.
- Drinking stations would be nice.
- Encourage the group to watch the movie available. Make sure the group knows the location and length of time of the movie.
- Enjoyed immensely
- Enjoyed our visit very much.
- Enjoyed our visit.
- Enjoyed the overall tour of the home.
- Enjoyed the visit.
- Every one was helpful. We went to Gettysburg College to see where Eisenhower had his office. The ladies were so nice and gave us infor and showed us around when they didn't have to.
- Everyone associated we dealt with at ENHS was helpful and friendly.
- Everything looked very well maintained and the rangers were very friendly and knowledgeable. Thanks!
- Everything was great except the shuttle bus.
- Everything was very nice. Enjoyed the home, and about The Family.
- Excellent last minute addition for our trip. I am just surprised we did not know about it while we were planning. It seems to be one of those little known sites.
- Farm equipment (would have liked it to be displayed better).
- Great - survey too long.
- Great jobs by rangers. Everyone was friendly and helpful, especially the shuttle bus driver Cindy who volunteered to retrieve a package I accidentally left behind in the barn. Thanks Cindy!
- Great park really! Definitely top 10!
- Great servive, guides, bus drivers. Excellant service.
- great tour
- Great tour
- Greater explanation of some item, callout, and explain in print. Greater explanation of Ike in W.W.II. Talk more about the highway system he pushed and civil rights he stood for. Didn't the park program start under Ike?
- Had a good time, will recommend to friends.
- Having more than 2 weeks to see all of Pennsylvania. We traveled a big loop from Philadelphia to almost Pittsburgh and back and missed a lot, but historic sites were big in our travel plans.
- House visits are just that. The D-Day lecture was the best part of the tour.
• I discovered it towards the end of our time, but I liked using the audio tour to get more information.
• I enjoyed it. It should stay open longer or the last shuttle should leave earlier
• I have already commented about it a few times, but I wish I had been properly informed about the program.
• I like the opportunities the NPS and DOI give us to see our country's history and memory, natural or otherwise.
• I like to listen to the Park Rangers.
• I think everything is great. I had my five year old with me, so my shorter stay was more to not wanting to overload my daughter with historic sites when she had a promise of Hershey Park the following day. This day was for myself and my mother, but I didn't want to overdo it with my daughter the way my grandfather did when I was five. I had horrible memories of Gettysburg and Eisenhower's home, but now, after this visit, those memories have softened.
• I think it could be better advertising the site & also the fact that you can only go on a bus from the visitor's center.
• I think the house needs to be cleaned a little
• "I thought more artifacts concerning DDE would help and if labeled better - * the gift shop lights were not working properly - maybe a short film documented DDE career actual footage for example: many people are not aware of his involvements with Little Rock, the McCarthy hearings, the Federal Highway system, & his ""Only Mistake"" Earl Warren"
• I very much enjoyed my visit and the ranger program I attended
• I. We enjoyed it very much!
• I'd like to see greater Federal budget support in general for all NPS sites, National Parks and associated areas. I think NPS does a remarkable job given the present budget constraints.
• If you had golf carts people could see more of the grounds
• I'm thankful we have had the opportunity to visit the Eisenhower home. They seemed to be very normal down to earth people. The scenery from the home and barn was beautiful and very peaceful. I liked the old fireplace and light in the sunroom. Not the kitchen so much, maybe cookies baking in the oven might improve the kitchen. I know not possible. Every body like free cookies.
• It is a top quality site. I dont see much room for improvement. Rangers are available but you dont get bogged down in a long tour.
• It is nice as a home of the 50s and sixties. The home as a site does a very poor job of telling why Ike was important. Nor does it attempt to paint him as a great man or great president. As it is presented today, it is under used maybe even wasted.
• It may have been nice to have a cart to assist people to the barn. Also, the ranger program should be highlighted either on the bus and when they greet you at the bus.
• It was a great experience!
• It was a great visit in our history education tour/vacation for my Grandsons, my son and myself Thank you
• It was a pleasant visit.
• It was a very informative program
• It was a wonderful historic visit. We loved His home and Farm. The cattle made it feel very life like. It was very interesting and enjoyable.
• "It was a wonderful tour!
• We really enjoyed the film in the visitor's center/gift shop."
• It was an unexpected pleasure to our Gettysburg trip as we never knew it existed!
• It was AWESOME
• It was enjoyable, you're doing good job. Thanks!
• It was excellent. One of the rangers gave us conflicting information on Eisenhower's smoking habits compared to the volunteer who was in the cow barn.
• It was great because they didn't use rangers and the guides were knowledgeable on their subject.
• It was great.
• It was very beautiful and very peaceful. I enjoyed my visit very much. I am glad I was able to visit, even though I only had a short time to visit.
• It was very interesting and informative.
• It was very interesting. It would be nice to see the cars and more money invested into the grounds.
• It was very pleasant. It happened to be a perfect weather day. After visiting the homestead we sat on a bench and looked over the magnificent panorama. Also chatted with some nice people from Wisconsin.
• it was wonderful and informative
• Lack of shade.
• Liked it so much I stayed until a later shuttle arrived. Property is so beautiful!
• Liked the shuttle bus system. More relaxed on the roads and less congestion and safer
• Loved it!
• Loved the history, the barns, wish tour was more detailed, maybe if you're not busy make tours a little longer love to hear the personal stories. If busy of course you have to shorten the tours.
• more shuttle buses to and from site, so to not feel rushed or on site parking to leave at own discresion
• More to do at the site. We felt like we saw everything in a quick amount if time. Although it was peaceful and beautiful.
• My daughter and I were there June 30 between 10-12:30. We enjoyed the Junior Ranger program very much. It was a nice change from typical Jr. ranger programs. I also througly enjoyed both the ranger who toured us around the property before leaving us at the house and the ranger in the cow barn. So much information.
• My grandson loved the junior secret service program. He enjoyed the info about the cars and the secret service men and women. I think this is a wonderful program for kids it keeps them interested and involved during the entire visit. The rangers and volunteers were also very interested in helping the kids complete their books and find information. Wonderful wonderful program.
• My son loves states! And he loved the state seal wallpaper in the house!!
• My wife and I enjoyed the tour of the Eisenhower estate. Especially the information the park rangers offered in the home and the show barn. Thank you

• None
• none
• none: a week was excellant. We road our tandem bike to town, visitors center, all sites. We had a great time at Gettsburg. Took two bus tours and price was right and guides and drivers were excellant. Parking could be added.
• Nope - enjoyed the visit but I wish we had more time to see more!
• Nope - had a great visit!
• Nothing for my wife and I. However, I have college educated children, the oldest is thirty, with an undergraduate degree at a liberal arts college and and a Doctorate in pharmacy. She knew Ike was a president, but was unaware of of his WW2 contributions. My youngest, who just graduated with a Professional Accounting degree from a liberal arts college, and took AP American history in HS, knew the name was important, but nothing else. I would encourage change in our education system which should teach American history in a good light. Not the negative shite which doesn't "Make America great again."

- Nothing I thought it was GREAT! I loved that the staff was on top of their game and if we asked an odd ball question that they didn't know the answer they looked it up for us.
- nothing. we had a great time and would love to make another journey down.
- Our family loves National Parks and how unique they are. Thank you for all of your work creating a special place for so many to enjoy.
- Overall, we enjoyed the visit quite a bit. Also we spoke to one of the rangers there and he was extremely knowledgeable.
- Parking on site as compared to parking at Gettysburg and then taking the shuttle to Eisenhower site
- please make living room brighter - hard to see after coming inside from sun!
- Probably none, Battlefield tours cost too much. Took tours back in the 90's and was very reasonable then. $45.00 is insane!!
- Replace the home's window glass with UV-blocking glass so the "shades" don't have to be drawn, making the home unnaturally dark and very unlike how the Eisenhowers actually lived and experienced the home. I feel I did not get a realistic experience of the home. New UV-blocking glass technology now allows the interior to be fully protected from fading and deterioration while also allowing normal, non-damaging visible sunlight to illuminate the interior. The unnatural darkness of the home, unlike how the Eisenhowers lived, was a MAJOR DISAPPOINTMENT.
- Room by room description
- Site is very well done and takes advantage of having the Battlefield so close. I can see potential for expanding the number of educational ranger led programs into a number of different topics.
- Students of color matter. My outstanding class was deeply troubled by the guide.
- Survey too long
- Thank you all very much.
- Thank you for preserving this park and making it available. I hope to visit again someday.
- Thank you for what you have and for being interested in improving any weak areas.
- Thank you for working hard to preserve our heritage.
- Thank you!
- Thanks for letting people take movies of the house. We will be back. We loved everything.
• The farm equipment condition was appalling. No farmer would allow such a situation to occur. Not a good representative of a president's farming ability.
• The property is very well maintained and beautiful.
• The rangers and volunteers were very knowledgeable and helpful. Our experience at the Eisenhower National Historic Site was very educational and helpful.
• The rangers are all really friendly and helpful. We had an overall good experience.
• The site tour was very well managed. The rangers were well informed, energetic and willing to try to answer all questions. The length of the tour time was more than sufficient. We were more than satisfied. My wife taught high school history for 38 years and I'm a history buff. We felt reasonably informed before the visit and were delighted with the information provided by the Rangers, much of which we did not know prior to the visit. I don't know of any way it could be improved.
• The site was very nicely maintained. Although I would have liked to park on site and drive down the lane I have to admit the shuttle service nicely restricts how many people are on site at one time and makes the visit more enjoyable. It allows people to see and enjoy the exhibits without being crowded.
• The tour was very informative.
• The trip was very enjoyable
• The visitor center where you parked was awful full and the parking spots were to small. Also, I would include more outdoor eating places and covered eating area's. A lot of families were eating out by their cars. The picnic tables were nice, but to hot to sit in the open sun.
• These questions are ridiculous. I went to Gettysburg, primarily to see the battlefield. This is a bonus destination. I have no idea what on earth you are asking with this question.
• They need some work done on exterior.
• This is not for the Eisenhower site rather the museum visitors center. The Gettysburg museum visitors center has a small restaurant with prices that are Way Too High!!! I definitely would NOT recommend to anyone to eat there.
• This survey is way too long!
• This survey seems like an attempt to add parking at the Eisenhower site, which I know Ike didn't want to see happen. The parking at Gettysburg with shuttle to the house seems just fine to me. If anything, expand some of the parking lots at the Gettysburg site, as there seems to be quite a bit of room between the existing lots to make them a little bigger for peak times.
• Thoroughly enjoyable
• Thoroughly enjoyed the visit
• too far to show barn, golf cart may have helped :)
• Very disappointing. Visited in 2007, and was much better.
• Very enjoyable visit, very interesting, we feel like we know a bit more about our history, would recommend anyone going to Gettysburg to visit...
• Very enjoyable! Ranger [name] was awesome.
• Very enjoyable, learned a lot - thanks!
• Very good experience. The guides were very knowledgeable and friendly. I would recommend other people go there.
• Very interesting and beautiful site.
• Very lovely place and not commercial oriented like Gettysburg
• Very nice managers.
• Very well organized.
• Was enjoyable. Tour person very knowledgeable and didn't bore us.
• We all enjoyed it.
• We appreciate all you do to promote and preserve our history. Thank You!
• We enjoyed all aspects of our visit. We would be happy to visit again - and would recommend it to others.
• We enjoyed it but did not have time for the barn.
• WE enjoyed it.
• We enjoyed the experience very much!
• We enjoyed the visit very much!
• We hope to return. Great trip!
• We liked it better in 1975.
• We live within a reasonable distance of the park and have gone many times. Our guests were visiting and wanted to see Gettysburg. We did the park in one day and went back for the Eisenhower Site. They enjoyed both.
• We love our national historic sites and parks. We are very active in giving to and visiting different parks in our country. We so appreciate the privilege to pass this on to our children.
• We loved it!
• We loved it! The talk about Khrushchev was very interesting.
• We loved it. Night programs with campfires would be fun
• We loved the place! Wouldn't mind being able to picnic there and enjoy the sunset.
• We really enjoyed our visit, tour of house and grounds. Learned more about Eisenhower, and appreciated all we learned.
• We really enjoyed our visit.
• We thoroughly enjoyed our visit.
• We took the last shuttle to Eisenhower's home and we felt very rushed. We couldn't see the barn on the other side of the field, which would have been nice. We only toured the home and had little time for anything else. We couldn't go into the gift shop or anything else
• We very much enjoyed it. Bus driver was friendly and funny.
• We were on our way home from visiting DC and found this to be a great addition to our vacation.
• We were told by the bus driver that we could get a return visit at either 4:30pm or 5:15pm. We were then told to wait inside at the gift shop for the bus since it was hot/humid and the gift shop has a short film and air conditioning that we could enjoy. We were finished with the tour of the house and grounds by 4:00pm and decided to wait inside the gift shop as suggested. The bus arrived by about 4:15pm. We decided to stay and finish watching the film and then get onto the bus for the 4:30pm return visit. When we went to get onto the bus, the bus driver said it's full and we'll have to wait for the next bus. Mind you, we have 4 children and 2 adults in our group. There were 4 other people wanting to get onto the bus, as well, that couldn't. This could've easily been a non-issue if the bus driver had mentioned that other groups could also get onto the bus and it's a first come first served basis. We would've easily entered the bus and not waited in the gift shop and would've gone on with our day. Instead, we had to entertain the 4 children for another 45 min. after already seeing the house, grounds, and gift shop/film. It was very disappointing after we really enjoyed the house and grounds. It caused us problems with the rest of our vacation plans that day since we were on a time frame!!

• We were very surprised at the low cost to visit the site and hope that it is enough to cover the costs to continue to maintain and improve the site. While we appreciate the low price, we would be okay with an increase, if needed.

• we're glad this place exists

• We're really impressed of how the house was set up and easy to see. Only wish more benches to enjoy the farm, in the shade.

• When the tour guide took us over to the trees and benches there were not enough benches for everyone to sit on. Some elderly people had to stand on a hot day. Can you provide more seating?

• While research is important, this survey is over the top and too time consuming and cumbersome. Your researcher at Eisenhower was pushy. I was there to learn, not be hounded.

• Why is there no military discount on tickets? Considering who's home we are visiting, it seems unpatriotic. I'd like to have seen more "Made in the USA" items available for purchase in the gift shop.

• Wonderful trip we enjoyed with our grandchildren!

• Wonderful visit, very interesting and a beautifully kept monument to the Eisenhower family.

• Worth the visit.

• Would like a picnic area or place to rest outdoors.
Appendix D: Decision Rules for Checking Non-response Bias

There are several methods for checking non-response bias. However, the most common way is to use some demographic indicators to compare between respondents and non-respondents (Dey 1997; Salant and Dillman 1994; Dillman and Carley-Baxter 2000; Dillman, 2007; Stoop 2004). In this study, we used five variables: group size, length of stay, problems parking, gender of the group member (observed), and visitor’s place of residence proximity to the park to check for non-response bias.

Fisher’s exact test detects the different in the response rates among different lengths of stay, whether or not parking problems were encountered, group types, visitor’s observed gender, and visitor’s place of residence and proximity to the park, due to the Chi-square assumption all expected counts are greater than five being violated. The hypothesis, in both tests, was that there is no significant difference across different categories (or groups) between respondents and non-respondents. If the p-value is greater than 0.05, the difference between respondents and non-respondents is judged to be insignificant.

Non-parametric median tests were used to test the differences between respondents and non-respondents median group size and length of stay in hours. The p-values represent the significance levels of these tests. If the p-value is less than 0.05, the two groups are significantly different.

Therefore, the hypotheses for checking non-response bias are:

1. Median group size is the same across respondents and non-respondents
2. Median length of stay in hours is the same across respondents and non-respondents
3. Respondents and non-respondents are not significantly different in terms of encountering parking problems
4. Respondents and non-respondents are not significantly different in terms of gender
5. Respondents and non-respondents are not significantly different in terms of proximity from their home to the park

As shown in Table 5 to Table 8, the p-values for respondent/non-respondent comparisons for group size and length of stay in hours are less than 0.05, indicating significant differences between respondents and non-respondents. The Results indicate some biases occurred due to non-response. There were no significant differences detected in the remaining variables. Results of the study in this report only reflect the simple frequencies. Inferences of the survey Results should be weighted to counterbalance the effects of nonresponse bias.
The SESRC database website (http://psu.sesrc.wsu.edu/reports/) allows data searches for comparisons of data from one or more parks.
